Frederick Tomlinson Peet : Personal Experiences in the Civil War (Classic Reprint) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Personal Experiences in the Civil War (Classic Reprint):

Excerpt from Personal Experiences in the Civil WarAfter much urging I have persuaded my uncle to write these

Recollections of his army life, which I print, not so much as adding to the history of the period, though they are not without value for that, but mainly because of the personal interest in them which will be felt by all his relatives and friends. Such records should be cherished in the family for many generations. I have added in foot-notes a few quotations from letters, etc., which explain, or add interest to, the narrative.
