HistoryBy Francisco ColonNot too many young Puerto Ricans know the history of the Island 65th Infantry, it should be a required reading on the Island if they should ever move into statehood.

During World War II, the all Puerto Rican 65th Infantry Regiment had been broken up with its three battalions relegated to backwater assignments where combat was unlikely. Still smarting fromm this slight, the 65th regained a measure of respect when it soundly defeated the veteran 3rd Infantry Division during postwar maneuvers.

About the AuthorThe late W. W. Harris commanded the 65th Infantry Regiment from 1949 to 1951 including its first year of combat in Korea.
