Jim Anderson did marry Mary Lucy Erwin. Capt. William T. Anderson did marry Bush Smith. Mary Erwin was only 11 years old when Bill Anderson married Bush Smith. Peterson said that Mary Erwin Bush Smith was one person. Mary Erwin and Bush Smith were two different young women. Jim Anderson might have married the widow of Bill Anderson, but, if so, that marriage is not recorded. Peterson said that Molly Anderson, sister of Jim and Bill Anderson, married and returned to the Kansas City area, which is not correct. Mary Ellen "Mollie" Anderson married Alexander V. Doak in Grayson County, TX, 28 June 1865, and they lived in north Texas before moving to Oklahoma.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. and he certainly is easy and forgiving on the faults of the BushwackersBy W. CoeSome duplication of his other Quantrill work, and he certainly is easy and forgiving on the faults of the Bushwackers, but it's still a good read.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. A definite keeper!By C. ShepherdAs a true lover of Civil War literature and historically accurate reading, I absolutely recommend this book, it would make a great addition to any collection.

The second of a three-volume work that examines the life of one of the most controversial figures of the Civil War, Quantrill in Texas: The Forgotten Campaign documents a part of William C. Quantrill's life and career that has largely been ignored by historians. Indeed, Quantrill's most unrecognized accomplishments outside his adopted state of Missouri occurred in Texas, not in Kansas or Kentucky.

About the AuthorPaul R. Petersen is a highly decorated retired officer of the U.S. Marine Corps and a lifelong resident of Jackson County, Missouri, near where William Quantrill lived. The author of Quantrill of Missouri: The Making of a Guerrilla Warrior, he lives in Raytown, Missouri.
