Manly Wade Wellman : Rebel Boast: First at Bethel Last at Appomattox before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Rebel Boast: First at Bethel Last at Appomattox:

During the Civil War, a family group of five young men marched away to Big Bethel, and two lived to lay down their arms at Appomattox. Through their letters and diaries, they left a testimony to what men they were, and how they fought and triumphed and lost. This first reprint, written from the common soldier's viewpoint, was nominated for the Pulitzer Prize in 1956.
