0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Story Behind the Legend.By J, Carter WattsWritten by William L. Shirer who was a news reporter in Germany when Hitler came to power. He saw first hand what was happening in Germany and tried reporting what he saw and what he saw convinced him of the evil Hitler was unleashing on the world. The pursuit of the battleship Bismarck was a task taken up by England because of its power and potential of destroying convoys of ships providing England with food and supplies. The Bismarck was able to destroy the most powerful ship in the British Navy the H.M.S. Hood killing all but three men. The Bismarck was Public Enemy Number 1 for England and the story was told by a man very capable of reporting it.0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Peter DrakeGreat condition and I am very pleased with it!
