reading this. What a remarkable, true life story!!! The book is well written and the story flows effortlessly from beginning to end. After finishing this, my only question is, why hasn't THIS story been told by Hollywood yet? Highly recommended for any Civil War/history buff!

On October 27, 1864, two marvels of the Civil War collided on the Roanoke River near Plymouth, North Carolina. The first was the formidable Confederate ironclad Albemarle, a 376-ton behemoth that had for months roamed the nearby rivers and waters of Albemarle Sound, defeating in turn everything the Federal Navy could throw at it. The second was William B. Cushing, a 21-year-old Federal naval lieutenant who had been selected to lead a virtual suicide mission to destroy the ironclad in her berth. This chronicle of the young officer's "David vs. Goliath" victory over the daunting ironclad presents a tale of courage and accomplishment.

"This chronicle of the young officer's "David vs. Goliath" victory over the daunting ironclad presents a tale of courage and accomplishment. A very exciting naval story, it holds the reader's attention through-out the entire story and will make an excellent addition to your American Civil War library. The CSS Albemarle and William Cushing has received a "WOW!" Rating." -- Lone Star Book About the Author Jim Stempel is an authority of the Eastern campaigns of the American Civil War.
