Plus my great grandfather was in companyC of the 47th and by the way knew the author Burdette as they served together and went to school together in Peoria, IL.

From Peoria to Corinth, from Corinth to Vicksburg, up the Red River country, down to Mobile and Fort Blakely, and back to Tupelo and Selma, the 47th Illinois Infantry Regiment marched 3,000 miles during Robert J Burdette's, private in the regiment, tour from March 1862 to December 1864. This memoir records the Civil War experiences of Burdette.

About the AuthorN[ewell] C[onvers] Wyeth is one of the most famous and beloved American illustrators of the twentieth century. A student of Howard Pyle's Brandywine School of American Illustration, Wyeth became known around the world for his work. His powerful, romantic illustrations for such classics as Treasure Island, Robin Hood, and Robinson Crusoe have shaped the imaginations of four generations.
