would be worth my time, and all praised The German Immigration Into Pennsylvania Through the Port of Philadelphia, 1700 to 1775, Vol. 2: The Redemptioners (Classic Reprint):

Excerpt from The German Immigration Into Pennsylvania Through the Port of Philadelphia, 1700 to 1775, Vol. 2: The Redemptioners The question of the German influence in the physical, political and intellectual upbuilding of this Commonwealth is of special interest to those of German ancestry. It has not yet been fully worked out but the present day is radiant with promise. The following chapters are offered as presenting some of the lights and shadows accompanying this immigration least familiar to the general reader.
